

Chamber Players Series

Thursday, March 12, 2015 ~ 8 p.m.

The Lyceum: Alexandria's History Museum
Alexandria, Virginia

An Irish Celebration

featuring
Celtic Aire

Personnel

Senior Master Sgt. Dennis Hoffmann, percussion & accordion

Master Sgt. Eric Sullivan, vocals, bass & mandolin

Master Sgt. Joseph Haughton, vocals, guitar, mandolin & banjo

Master Sgt. Emily Wellington, vocals & violin

Technical Sgt. Julia Brundage, vocals, flutes/whistles & percussion

Tonight's performance features the international folk music ensemble, Celtic Aire. Selections will be announced from the stage. If you are interested in more information about any specific piece, please feel free and meet us after the show.

Aim High ... Fly, Fight, Win

Formed in 2007, Celtic Aire is comprised of five Airmen musicians from The U.S. Air Force Band's Singing Sergeants. In addition to public concerts in Washington, D.C. and the surrounding area, this ensemble performs at events for high-level military and civilian leaders. In 2010, Celtic Aire deployed to Kuwait, Iraq, Qatar and Kyrgyzstan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. Using multiple instruments and lush vocal harmonies, they have developed a repertoire of Celtic folk songs, Irish reels and jigs, pub songs and cover versions of pop songs.

Upcoming Events:

Thursdays at 8 p.m. at

The Lyceum: Alexandria's History Museum

201 S. Washington St., Alexandria, Va.

March 19 – Music for Brass Quintet

March 26 – U.S. Air Force Woodwind Quintet & Chamber Trio

April 2 – Diversity of Saxophone featuring Master Sgt. Jeremy Koch

April 9 – Music for Euphonium featuring Technical Sgt. Matthew Shipes

All events are free and non-ticketed.

For more information, call 202-767-5658

or visit our website:

www.usafband.af.mil

Col. Larry H. Lang, Commander & Conductor

The United States Air Force Band

Master Sgt. Jeremy Koch, Noncommissioned Officer in Charge

The United States Air Force Chamber Players Series